

SWOGADVOCATES@OHSU.EDU

Public Powered Cancer Research Since 1956

THE HOPE FOUNDATION Because answers to cancers come from clinical trie The Hope Foundation provided $3,039,334 in charitable support to SWOG $12,209,018 181 in direct trial support (SWOG-CTI) SWOG members received research grants or training awards 66 The foundation in 2016 Thanks to board rolled out a host of guidance and a stellar new programs that offered more research team, we navigated challenges with an grants and more training dollars directly efficiency and focus that had measurable impact to SWOG members on SWOG's mission 99

Johanna R. Horn, President & CEO, The Hope Foundation

ation